ELK CREEK JOTS.

One of the best dances ever known in this neighborhood was given at the home of Pat Loftus, Friday night, January 29. Good old-fashioned hospitality made everyone feel at home. A generous supply of good things to eat with plenty of coffee was served at 12 o'clock, and also at daylight. The affair was well attended and everyone present enjoyed him or herself immensely, and daylight was not welcomed. There will be a dance at Louis Martin's next Friday.

I. P. Flannery brought home some of their cattle and expects to stay out and look after them.

Will Beard is on the sick list this week.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Popular Because It Is the Best.

"I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past eight years and find it to be one of the best selling medicines on the market. For babies and young children there is nothing better in the line of cough syrups," says Paul Allen, Plain Dealer, La. This remedy not only cures the coughs, colds and croup so common among young children, but is pleasant and safe for them to take. For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

OLIVER VOTED FOR IT.

The Smith bill, intended to kill the power of initiative and referendum, defeated in the senate Tuesday, was supported by and voted for by Senator Turner Oliver of this district. Voters should remember this.

Baby Is Scalded; Man Falls Off Roof

Two Accidents At The Park—Boy Upsets Kettle of Boiling Water.

The Park, Feb. 2.—W. F. Gillaspie, while at work on the roof of his new store building here Saturday, fell and was quite badly hurt, his left shoulder and elbow being badly sprained.

Frank Shevelin, a four-year-old boy was badly scalded by upsetting a kettle of boiling water off the stove. When his clothes were removed the skin came off his legs from the hips down.

W. L. Hewett, who recently bought the Tom Rich place, was here in company with Mr. Rich, for several days, both returning to Joseph today.

Mrs. L. G. Page returned Friday from Joseph, where she had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Rich.

JOSEPH

Joseph, Feb. 5.—The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church had a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Thos. Lay, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. W. L. Mulkey and Miss Besie Taylor entertained their Sunday school classes in the church parlor, Friday evening.

Thursday afternoon, Mrs. L. Caviness very royally entertained the Embroidery club, Mrs. N. Molitor, sister of Mr. Caviness, being the guest of honor.

The O. E. S. gave a select social Wednesday night, which was a very enjoyable affair. Out of town guests were Mrs. Pittinger of Hillsboro and Mrs. N. Molitor of La Grande.

Father Bradley who has been very ill for some weeks past, is somewhat better.

Grandpa Cole is very sick at the home of his son George.

Mrs. R. Hope is quite ill at her father, A. M. Adams'.

STATEMENT NO. 1 WINS.

Salem, Feb. 3.—By a vote of 30 to 27 the house this afternoon defeated the bill making it a misdemeanor to take the Statement No. 1 or any other pledge, and the senate by a tie vote refused to reconsider the vote by which a bill making it a misdemeanor to circulate any initiative or referendum petition for pay was defeated yesterday.

Even the Statement No. 1 men who voted for Chamberlain under protest, defended Statement No. 1 and fought the anti-pledge bill. Two representatives only, who were elected on Statement No. 1, Brady and Richardson (of Union), voted for the bill, while two anti-statement members joined in opposing it.

BOOM PRICES FOR WOOL.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Feb. 2.—Eastern buyers already have purchased 3,000,000 pounds of the 1909 clip of wool in this state, yet on sheeps' backs, at prices ranging from 15 to 18 cents. A million pounds of Casper wool that sold for 9 1/2 to 11 cents in 1908 sold three days ago for 17 cents.

Dealings to date indicate that prices for the 1909 clip will now near or exceed 1907 figures, the highest in the history of Wyoming.

SOCIETY and LODGES

Enterprise camp, No. 535, W. O. W., elected the following officers the night of February 1: Sam Litch, C. C.; J. D. Woodell, adviser; W. H. Graves, banker; C. A.ault, clerk; W. W. Zurcher, escort; S. W. are invited to be present. Smoker follows the installation. Visiting Woodmen cordially invited.

Reason Enthroned.

Because meats are so tasty they are consumed in great excess. This leads to stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation. Revise your diet, let reason and not a pampered appetite control, then take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. Try it. For sale at Burnaugh & Mayfield's drug store. Samples free.

GAME LAWS.

Any person knowing of any violation of the game or fish laws of the state, or of persons not properly keeping screens over irrigator ditches, are requested to notify
